Reflection for the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle B, Year II) – September 22, 2024

For the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, our theme is – We open our hearts to God’s holy presence when we serve with humility and pure intention. This theme is about humble service. As his followers, Jesus tells us that those who want to follow him must be like him who is the last and servant of all. Humility is the key to genuine service. We do not serve to be noticed or praised. We serve to glorify God through the work of our hands that is offered solely for Him, and not because we await his reward through earthly recognition. We receive Jesus through our sincerity, and as we do, we also receive the Father. As we work for the glory of God, we are never alone because “...whoever receives me, receives the One who sent me.” (Mk 9:37b) [Reflections from CSL]

Theme: We open our hearts to God’s holy presence when we serve with humility and pure intention.

Promise: “...whoever receives me, receives the One who sent me.” (Mk 9:37b)

Order:

1. “Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and the servant of all.” (Mk 9:35)
2. “... pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield... without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy.” (Jas 3:17)
3. “...harvest of righteousness is sown in peace to those who make peace.” (Jas 3:18)

Direction:

1. Practice humility and put others before ourselves.
2. Seek the wisdom from above and give thanks to the Lord.
3. Be instruments of peace by promoting reconciliation.
